

Rev. Jesse Jackson in EPA

Community Legal Services in East Palo Alto invites you

A conversation featuring
REVEREND JESSE JACKSON
SELF-DETERMINATION OR GENTRIFICATION:
THE FIGHT FOR
EAST PALO ALTO

Civil rights activist Rev. Jesse Jackson will be at City Hall next week for a luncheon and a conversation on "Self-Determination or Gentrification: The Fight for East Palo Alto." The luncheon will begin at 12:00pm, and parking will be available at 1990 Bay Road. To RSVP, please email Joseph Prado at jprado@cityofepa.org.

After the luncheon, Rev. Jackson will be speaking at Stanford University from 4:00pm to 6:00pm. This event is first-come first-served and free. If you would like to attend the event at Stanford, the City will have available vans from the Senior Center (560 Bell Street) to Stanford. For more information on this event please visit www.clsepa.org.

New Parking Lot

As you know, the East Palo Alto Government Center at 2415 University Avenue is currently undergoing improvements on its parking lot.

This project is coming along very well, is looking to be ahead of schedule, and may be opened as early as January 30. In the meantime, if you are planning to come to City Hall, temporary parking is available at 1990 Bay Road with a free shuttle for transportation. Thank you to all employees and the public for your cooperation during this transition time and difficulty with parking. We are looking forward to having our new lot reopened.

Storm Ready

The StormReady National Weather Service recently recognized the City of East Palo Alto as a StormReady Community for enhancing public safety and improving the timeliness and effectiveness of weather warnings for the public through a diligent and proactive approach of increased communication and preparedness. Thank you to all staff who have worked so hard for this achievement and for their commitment to all people who work and live in East Palo Alto.

East Palo Alto Proud

We are very proud of Rick McManis, the City's Chief Building Official, who was recently invited as the keynote speaker to the American Construction Inspectors Association's 55th Annual Symposium. As always, Rick did a wonderful job, receiving a standing ovation for his talk. He represented East Palo Alto very well in the City of Long Beach, California. Rick is one of only 800 ICC Master Code Professionals (MCP), the highest certification the Code Council confers. Congratulations, Rick. We're glad to have an MCP on our team.

Coffee With Carlos

Please join me for a cup of coffee on Saturday February 7, 2015 at 10:00am at the Starbucks in East Palo Alto (1745 E. Bayshore Blvd). I will be open to meet and chat with all community members to listen to any issues you may want to share, and informally answer any questions you may have.

Java With Jerry

State Senator Jerry Hill invites you to join him for a cup of coffee and conversation. Bring your ideas, questions, and concerns about legislative issues affecting the community.

Antigua Coffee Shop
(437A Grand Avenue, South San Francisco)
Saturday, January 24
9:00am-10:00am